MISSISSAUGA FESTIVAL CHOIR WELCOMES HAZEL MCCALLION ONSTAGE IN UPCOMING CHRISTMAS CONCERT

Mississauga Festival Choir (MFC) ushers in the 2016 holiday season with a festive concert entitled "A Mississauga Christmas" on Saturday, December 3rd at 8:00pm in Hammerson Hall at Mississauga's Living Arts Centre.

Joining forces with musicians from the Mississauga Symphony Orchestra, the evening promises to celebrate the holiday season in style with a selection of classic favourites, as well as excerpts from Handel's Messiah and pieces from John Rutter, including "Rejoice and be Merry".

One of the highlights of the evening will certainly be when Hazel McCallion joins MFC onstage as their guest narrator for MFC's rendition of "Twas the Night Before Christmas".

With over 160 voices, Mississauga Festival Choir is the largest community choir in the area with a rich diversity of members. Being non-auditioned, it welcomes anyone interested in singing and sharing their love of music.

Tickets are currently available online (livingartscentre.ca), by telephone (905-306-6000) and in person at the Living Arts Centre box office. Tickets are $37 for adults, $32 for students and seniors, and $15 for children under 12.
